YOUR CUSTOMIZED TRAINING DESCRIPTION

You're a lot like your clients; a little bit different.

So why should your training be like everyone else's?

Nancy has a reputation for highly customizing trainings which meet the needs of her clients.

She wants to address your goals and objectives, your audience, your concerns. She wants every person to leave your event knowing she delivered the training just for him or her.

What doesn't change?

- Nancy's commitment to the success of your event
- Nancy's straight talk, real life stories, and intuitive insights which are woven into trending research and
- 25 years of on-the-job training in personal and professional development.

(Oh, and her Brooklyn accent).

How do we start?

With a Pre-Event Questionnaire. Then you'll schedule a call with Nancy—invite your key stakeholders, committee, decision-makers, or anyone else who's input will influence the success of your event.

Let's get started...

We're looking forward to helping you grow authentic leaders and cohesive teams for a more empowered organization!

Our members just raved about Nancy Solomon's teleseminar session, The Unheard Third, for IACCM's "Ask the Expert" series. Nancy's tremendous passion and energy for her work translated into an entertaining, intelligent and inspiring discussion which had great relevance for our members. We received a lot of feedback telling us that they want Nancy back for another session!
